

- Dr. TRINH Thi Thu Huong, Foreign Trade University, Hanoi, Vietnam

Assoc. Prof. TRINH Thi Thu Huong holds a PhD degree from January 2004 at CIEM (Interuniversity Centre for Mobility Study) in Brussels, Belgium where she had two Master' degree in Economics Analysis and in Transport Management. Now she is Vice-dean of the Faculty of Economics and International Business and Director of Logistics and Freight forwarding Department at Foreign Trade University, Vietnam.

Her research interest includes logistics, international freight forwarding, supply chain management and cargo insurance.

Over the last 10 years, she is a consultant for ADB, Mekong Economics, MUTRAP, MOIT (Vietnam Ministry of Industry and Trade). Also she acts as coordinator in North-South-South Higher Education Institution Network Programme - joint project financed by Finnish government.

She had wrote and co-wrote 4 books in international freight forwarding, supply chain management and transport services. Her more than 40 articles have been published in Vietnamese and International reviews and some presented in WB' conferences.